

Resources audit form

This form has been created to show the kinds of resources that are useful to have in school for computing. The list is not definitive – you can teach computing without many of these elements, and other tools or devices can also be helpful.

KS1

Programmable digital devices

Robots on screen: ScratchJr Scratch LightBot

Tools for working with digital content

Text images sound video multimedia

IT beyond school

Smartphones cameras tablets

KS2

Programming

Control hardware Graphical programming environments Text-based programming languages*

*(not required for KS2)

Computer networks including the internet

Access to command prompt

The Web

HTML editor Web server

Communication and collaboration

E-mail video conferencing wikis blogs Office 365 Google Apps for Education

Search

Google Bing

A range of devices

Web servers tablets laptops smartphones

Content

Text images audio music video animation 3D: SketchUp Minecraft

Data

Online forms Spreadsheets Exploratory data analysis

Notes